

LWML CONSULTANT

The purpose of an LWML Consultant is to assist local LCMS women's groups find answers to questions such as:

- What are the advantages of being affiliated with the LWML?
- How do we join? What will be required of us?
- Where can we get leadership training?
- How can we redesign our group?
- How can we reach other women?

An LWML Consultant helps groups define their purpose and sharpen their mission focus.

- Time is so limited for the women of the LWML!
- What can we do to get women involved?
- How can we become more mission-focused?

An LWML Consultant explores various structures.

- Is there anything we can add to our regular Bible study?
- Our group has become stagnant, doing the same thing month after month. What can we do to increase enthusiasm?
- What do we do when we can't get officers to serve?

An LWML Consultant helps plan effective, spiritually motivating programs.

- I've been elected, now where do I get some assistance?
- How does our group set goals and achieve them?
- Where can we get leadership training?
- What resources are available?

An LWML Consultant helps develop local leaders.

LWML Texas District, as of the 2018–2020 biennium, has one professionally trained LWML Consultant in the district to assist you in reaching your goals and serving your Lord in more meaningful ministry. Contact information is available in the LWML Consultant brochure and on the website at lwmltxdist.org/consultants or by contacting the LWML Texas District President.

An LWML Consultant is available for speaking at your next event.

Your LWML Consultant can help your group realize that “the mission of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League is to assist each woman of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in affirming her relationship with the Triune God so that she is enabled to use her gifts in ministry to the people of the world.”