

MITES IN ACTION

Making an eternal difference – globally

By Rev. Dr. Yohannes Mengsteab
Mission and Ministry Facilitator, Area B and
Joy Cowan
LWML VP of Gospel Outreach

The Lutheran Student Center at the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA) reaches out to more than 150 international students. It's a place where the students share meals and build relationships with members of area Lutheran congregations, and where the Gospel is proclaimed by Word and deed.

The stories of transforming relationships are inspiring. Students from Hindu, Buddhist and Muslim backgrounds hear the Gospel without fear of retaliation from their communities and governments. The ends of the earth are coming to our institutions of higher learning; the students will go back to their countries to become leaders in all sectors of government and business. They are making an eternal difference globally.

Susan Dorn has been named interim director of the student center. She will work with the center Board of Directors and students to continue to implement activities at the facility.

The Student Center is open five days a week and has 70 to 150 students attend on Friday evening. Exciting things are happening at UTA.

The students are engaged in the front line of mission and the devil does not like it one bit. They covet the prayers of all our readers.

An attitude of gratitude

Joyfully serve the Lord
Openly confess the Gospel
Yearn to grow in God's Word

“Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.”
1 Thess. 5:16-18 (NIV)

We can find many Scripture references confirming that it is God’s will for us to have an attitude of gratitude. We also know God encourages us to share what He provides and care for others. God empowers our attitude with action for others.

Lutheran Women in Mission have an attitude of gratitude. Did you know there is a calendar of mission service activities for the year at lwml.org/mission-service-activities? It includes this activity:

“Use the month of November to keep a ‘Thankfulness Journal.’ Each day write down one item for which you are thankful and don’t forget to express your gratitude to those near you. Say a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to our creator, redeemer and sanctifier.”

I receive many encouraging notes, cards, texts and emails, and I thank you for your support and prayers. I thank God for each of you.

Serving with JOY,
Debbie Curry
