

Comic Relief
Abby Goehring

Abby Goehring currently lives in Central Texas with her husband, Matt, but she grew up in the Coastal Bend area. Abby has been a teacher for 16 years. Her mission field is her classroom where she gets to interact with kids daily and, hopefully, is blessed to be a role model for them. She loves her job because each day is a new day and, well...you just never know what kids are going to say!

Abby is a lifelong Lutheran. The first convention she ever attended was the last time an LWML Texas District Convention was held in Corpus Christi where she served as a page. Since then, she has been involved with the LWML on all levels, from serving as the Zone YWR to serving on the Committee of Young Women on both the district and national levels. The LWML has become part of who she is, and she looks forward to any LWML activity and, of course, the conventions!

Abby made her comedic debut in 2018 at the LWML Texas District Convention where she portrayed Katie Luther. When former President Debbie Larsen called to invite her to work with one of her mentors, Jan Struck, at the 2021 LWML Convention in Kentucky, she responded with an excited "YES!" When asked for an encore at the 2023 Convention in Milwaukee, she gleefully accepted! The rest, as they say, is history! Abby is excited to be back in Corpus Christi, where it all began, to provide comedic relief for the purple, praying LWML ladies of the Texas District!
