MUJERES EN MISIÓN DE LA ZONA
DEL VALLE DEL RÍO GRANDE

Septiembre de 2026

El tiempo de Dios es perfecto.

“El tiempo de Dios es perfecto”. Esta es una frase que la evangelista Bertha Sánchez ha repetido a menudo al compartir cómo el Señor la ha guiado y bendecido a lo largo de su vida.

Hace casi un año, Bertha se jubiló tras 24 años de trabajo. Desde entonces, el Señor le ha brindado aún más oportunidades para servir a sus vecinos y compartir las Buenas Nuevas de Jesucristo. Quienes conocen su espíritu bondadoso, su profunda compasión por los demás y su amor sincero, que refleja el amor que Cristo le mostró desde el principio, lo saben.

Valle del Río Grande

SUR DE TEXAS

Cuando Moisés les recordó al pueblo de Israel quiénes eran, no hizo referencia a sus logros. No les dijo que eran el pueblo de Dios porque se habían ganado su favor o habían demostrado ser fieles. De hecho, no lo habían hecho. En cambio, Dios simplemente declaró: «Ustedes son un pueblo santo para el Señor su Dios... Su tesoro preciado». Los amaba porque eligió amarlos.

Ya sea en el supermercado, caminando por la calle, visitando a los vecinos o pasando tiempo con la familia, Bertha siempre está dispuesta a escuchar, animar, acoger y orar con aquellos que Dios pone en su camino. También es muy conocida por su hospitalidad. Los miembros de su congregación, Trinity–El Calvario en Brownsville, pueden dar fe de su generosidad y de los dones que Dios le ha dado para servir a los demás, especialmente a través de la cocina.

Su propósito es capacitar a los cristianos de a pie para que compartan el Evangelio y pongan en marcha nuevas comunidades de fe en lugares y espacios cotidianos.

EL EVANGELISTA

Serie de capacitación

Como voluntaria en una residencia de ancianos, Bertha no solo lleva alimento físico, sino también alimento espiritual a través de la Palabra de Dios. Allí comparte con los residentes el mensaje de esperanza y salvación que se encuentra en Jesucristo, cuidándolos con amabilidad, atención y pequeños obsequios que alegran sus días. Su deseo es que otros conozcan el consuelo, el perdón y la nueva vida que Cristo ofrece a través de su muerte y resurrección.

Recientemente, Bertha fue enviada como evangelista junto con otras ocho mujeres de su congregación. Además de sus vocaciones como esposa y madre, su servicio en la iglesia y su trabajo en la residencia de ancianos, ahora también dirige un estudio bíblico con vecinos a quienes conoce desde hace más de cuarenta años.

Al observar la vida de Bertha, vemos cómo Dios sigue obrando a través de su Palabra y de aquellos a quienes llama a servir. Todo se desarrolla según su perfecto tiempo y su misericordiosa voluntad. El Señor, quien inició esta buena obra en ella, continúa usándola para proclamar el Evangelio de Jesucristo y compartir su amor con muchas personas en Brownsville, Texas, y más allá.

A Dios solamente sea la gloria.

PRAYING FOR MISSIONS AROUND THE WORLD

“Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.” — Colossians 4:2

This is a monthly prayer guide for your daily use. Each day as you pray, please feed your Mite Box in support of district and LWML Mission Grants. As you lift up the countries and mission grants listed, pray that the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ would be heard by those who live there or are served by our mite offerings. Each country listed has been a recipient of a mission grant from LWML.

1. For LWML Mission Grant #21.
2. For men who heed God's call to serve his people as pastors.
3. For Papua New Guinea, one of the 83 countries supported by an LWML grant.
4. For our will to follow God's will, as we grow in relationship with him.
5. For ways to serve your neighbors with acts of kindness.
6. For the LWML Recording Secretary.
7. For the countries of Panama and Peru.
8. For the LWML Montana and New Jersey Districts.
9. Pray this 10-second prayer. “Lord, I pray for my friend, _____
You love her and I love her. Be with her today. Amen.”
10. For your family. Pray that they draw near to Jesus.
11. For the country of the Philippines.
12. For gratitude of the Savior's gift of salvation.
13. For the Lord to heal our world and for His return to put the world right.
14. For our countenance to show the love and grace of the Savior, Jesus Christ.
15. For the country of Myanmar (Burma).
16. For the LWML Nebraska North and Southern Illinois Districts.
17. For the opportunity to show kindness to enemies.
18. For the many around the world who do not yet know You, Lord.
19. For the country of Paraguay.

ARCH BOOKS FOR IMMIGRANT CHILDREN IN THE USA

CONCORDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE — CONCORDIA GOSPEL
OUTREACH, U.S. | $125,000

Reaching Immigrant Children Using Arch Books in their Native Language

In 1869, Concordia Publishing House (CPH) was founded as a small St. Louis printer with the mission of providing doctrinally sound materials for churches and individuals. Today, they offer more than 10,000 products and services that are faithful to the Scriptures and the Lutheran Confessions.

CPH publishes Arch Books which have been used for generations by families, educators, and pastors to teach important truths of the Bible. Each book takes a portion of Scripture and sets its story in rhyme, capturing the imagination of children and bringing the stories of God's Word to life.

If you remember the first time you learned about the story of creation, it was likely at Sunday school or reading a book at home in your parents' laps. For many immigrant and refugee children in the United States, access to books in their native language, especially books that share the love of Christ, is not guaranteed.

The United States is home to nearly one-fifth of the world's international immigrants, many of whom face challenges in accessing materials in their native languages. Recognized Service Organizations (RSOs) of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, congregations, and other ministry programs across the United States that routinely care for these populations also struggle to find Bible-based materials in the languages of those they serve. This grant will provide funding for the Arch Books to be created and made available in Spanish, Chinese, Telugu, Arabic, and Farsi. The five books will include The Story of Creation, Noah's 2-by-2 Adventure, Baby Jesus is Born, The Week that Led to Easter, and Jesus Blesses the Children.

This mission grant aims to equip LCMS entities serving immigrant and refugee populations with Arch Books, free of charge, in the heart language of children and families they serve.

*And how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you
wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus
(2 Timothy 3:15).*

"The printing press," according to Martin Luther, "is God's highest grace by which the Gospel is driven forward." We agree that books make wonderful missionaries, able to share the Gospel not just with one child, but with entire families and beyond as the books are read together. Through this project we will provide thousands of children access to the Word of God, but we know it is the living and active Word of God that does the rest.

According to the Pew Research Institute, Arabic is the "seventh-most common non-English language spoken at home. Arabic speakers represent several nationalities and include both immigrants and those born in the U.S." This project will make Arch Books available to LCMS organizations serving and sharing the Good News to Arabic speaking persons in the United States.

Arch Books have been used for generations by families, educators, and pastors to teach important truths of the Bible. Each book takes a portion of Scripture and sets its story in rhyme, capturing the imagination of children and bringing the stories of God's Word to life. Through Concordia Publishing House/Concordia Gospel Outreach, Arch Books have been used to share the Good News with thousands of children across the United States and around the world.

For many years, Spanish Arch Books, or Libros Arco, have been used by mission teams and outreach programs serving in the US and around the world to teach children Bible stories. Following a mission trip where 250 Spanish Arch Books were shared with children and their families, DCE Zech Teasdale recalled "They will have books in their own language that are all about Jesus. They truly have been positively impacted for life in the name of Christ!"

Chosen Ones

You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, so that you may proclaim the excellences of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:9 nusb

On occasion, you may need a little nudge for all the pieces of your disposition to fall into alignment with God's. Today's nudge is a grand reminder of your identity in the body of Christ. You are a holy priest serving the living God! He is risen, and you are his. Because of this, you walk in his light, and you shepherd others into the light as well.

Sometimes, it is difficult to get rid of the grumpy feelings of the day. It seems okay to have a lower opinion of yourself or your circumstances (and maybe even other people). But the truth is that God's opinion should be your opinion, and you can shout that in everything you do. Priests carry a message to the people. What message are you carrying today?

God, thank you for choosing me to be a priest for you. Help show me how to share the good news of your Son with everyone I interact with.

Peace, Love & SISTERHOOD

LUKE 1: MARY & ELIZABETH

REAL WOMEN • REAL STORIES • A FAITHFUL GOD

WOMEN'S RETREAT
BIBLE QUIZ

You don't have to carry this alone.

BIBLE QUIZ

Test your knowledge of Luke 1 and be encouraged by the example of Mary and Elizabeth. Choose the best answer.

1

Gabriel gave Mary information about Elizabeth's pregnancy immediately before making which statement?

- A. Nothing will be impossible with God.
- B. Do not be afraid, Mary.
- C. You will call His name Jesus.
- D. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever.

Go a Little Deeper

God's power is at work even in the unexpected. What seems impossible to us is not impossible with God.

2

Which detail in Luke 1 most directly shows that Elizabeth recognized something spiritually significant about Mary's unborn child?

- A. She called Mary the mother of her Lord.
- B. She welcomed Mary into her home.
- C. She was Mary's relative.
- D. She was six months pregnant.

Sisterhood Connection

A woman who sees what God is doing will speak words that lift and encourage.

3

Which sequence best matches the events surrounding Mary's arrival at Elizabeth's home in Luke 1?

- A. Mary greets Elizabeth → the baby leaps → Elizabeth is filled with the Holy Spirit → Elizabeth blesses Mary.
- B. Elizabeth blesses Mary → Mary greets her → the baby leaps → Elizabeth blesses Mary → Elizabeth is filled with the Holy Spirit.
- C. The baby leaps → Mary greets Elizabeth → Elizabeth blesses Mary → Elizabeth is filled with the Holy Spirit.
- D. Mary greets Elizabeth → Elizabeth blesses Mary → the baby leaps → Elizabeth is filled with the Holy Spirit.

Go a Little Deeper

One faithful step — a simple greeting — can be the beginning of something life-giving in another woman's life.

4

Elizabeth's words in Luke 1:45 especially commend which aspect of Mary's response to God?

- A. Her belief that the Lord would fulfill His word.
- B. Her complete understanding of God's plan.
- C. Her willingness to leave Nazareth permanently.
- D. Her confidence that life would now be easier.

Sisterhood Connection

True encouragement reminds us to look at what God has said and to trust His faithfulness.

5

In Mary's Magnificat, which reversal does she specifically describe?

- A. The mighty are brought down and the humble are exalted.
- B. The elderly become young and the young become old.
- C. The barren become rulers and rulers become servants.
- D. The priests become kings and kings become priests.

Go a Little Deeper

God's kingdom often looks different from the world's — He lifts up the humble and fills the lowly with good things.
