

LWML EDUCATION

This exercise is intended for newcomers to help them understand the sometimes complex structure and functioning of the LWML organization.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League is a wide-ranging, active group. It uses many terms to describe its varied activities. The following game will help you sort through the special vocabulary of the LWML. Most of the definitions have been taken from the LWML Catalog. First match each term below with the correct definition. Then place the underlined letter on the corresponding numbered line.
